U2L LIAISON

core roles and responsibilities

What does it mean to be a United to Learn Campus Liaison?

U2L Liaisons serve as the primary relationship manager between United to Learn, their assigned elementary campus, and designated U2L community partners. As relationship managers, liaisons are gatekeepers of trust, developing strong relationships with campus leadership. They serve as a trusted thought partner characterized by listening first. Liaisons are tasked with becoming a part of the campus community, positively impacting the campus climate and ecosystem by identifying ways to meaningfully activate the local community in closing the achievement gap and by assisting campuses in accessing United to Learn resources and programming.

Through their leadership as a U2L Liaison, liaisons will:

- Cultivate relationships
- Serve as a United to Learn representative
- Develop leadership competencies
- Activate community
- Bridge resource gaps

The U2L Liaison “Big 3” (Monthly Priorities)

- Complete a check-in with your school principal (quarterly meetings should be in-person or virtual)
- Support a campus program (either U2L presented/sponsored or hosted by your campus)
- Curate (host/deliver) a “Sunshine Session”
